

We are happy to announce that, as of January 1st 2018, KSD Edinburgh will offer all Buddha Dharma teachings free of charge.

The precious Buddha Dharma is beyond price. Therefore we wish to make it freely available to benefit all who seek it.

Drupon Rinpoche said, "The friends and sponsors of each Dharma Centre should take responsibility for its upkeep and enable it as a place where Buddha Dharma can flourish"

Inspired by this, and with the blessing of Lama Yeshe Rinpoche, we invite you to become a Friend of Kagyu Samye Dzong Edinburgh.

KSDE is run by dedicated volunteers. But there are still considerable costs involved in the Centre's upkeep and sustainability as an oasis of peace, inspiration and sanity.

By becoming a Friend of KSDE we take care and ownership of our Centre and share the merit of enabling the Buddha Dharma to be given freely for the benefit of all.

For a modest offering of £5, £10, or £20 a month (the price of a cup of coffee a week) we can make it happen! Just turn the page and join the Circle of Friends today.
